GREAT FINDS for pets

AT HOME
give them shelter

Cats have a thing for cardboard, but a plain old box doesn't do much for your décor. Instead, tuck felines into this Modernist chalet ($23, loyalluxe.com). The faux-bois cabin, made from recycled cardboard, is shipped flat for extra eco-friendly credit. The Roll-a-Nest (from $5, at pet stores) looks like a decorative object but encourages natural nesting instincts. Woven from sisal, the hideout doubles as a snack for guinea pigs and gerbils in need of a nibble.

ON THE GO
take a walk

Help your pup put its best paw forward with a handsome collar or harness. These four offer style points and creature comfort.

CLASSIC COLLAR

Harry Barker's recycled-plastic lead and collar ($25 and $19; trixieandpeanut.com) have a très chic horse-bit pattern and are good for short walks with dogs of any size.

JACKET HARNESS

As luxurious as a Barbour jacket, this waxed canvas harness ($54, foundmyanimal.com) and coordinating rope leash ($60) keep dogs under control comfortably; 25 percent of the profits go to the Louis Animal Foundation, which spays and neuters animals for free in rural areas.

HARNESS

Because they place less strain on a dog's neck, harnesses are best for training and long outings. The Martha Stewart Pets padded leather harness ($28, petsmart.com) distributes tension; the matching leash ($25) can hold a bag dispenser.

MARTINGALE COLLAR

More humane than a choke chain, Wagging Green's design has a control loop attached to a stable collar and leash ($21 and $23; olivegreendog.com). Bonus: They're made of pesticide-free bamboo.

PLAYTIME
frisky behavior

The all-natural Kong Crinkle Fish ($6 each, at pet stores) entices cats with feathers, cotton-encased catnip, and crackly sounds.

The Nina Ottosson cat pyramid ($12, pawlickers.com) makes your feline companions work to get at the morsels hidden within.

The Weebles-shaped Martha Stewart Pets Crochet Squeak Toy Chick ($10, petsmart.com) stands up to moderate canine chewers.

The yucca Bird Kabob ($6, birdkabob.com) keeps parrots, macaws, or cockatiels happily shredding and pecking away for hours.

Play fetch with this handmade felted-wool dinosaur ($12, acheerfulpet.com); proceeds benefit Nepalese workers.

Fill the Orbee-Tuff eggplant and strawberry chomper toys ($15 and $10.45 each; planetdog.com) with a meaty dog treat.
